1. Acceptance of the Terms of Use

These Terms of Use are entered into by and between you and Venu Holding Corporation (“Venu”) and the Notes Live Foundation d/b/a Venu Arts & Culture Foundation (the “Foundation,” collectively “we,” “our,” or “us”) by your use of the Website. The following terms and conditions, together with any documents that they expressly incorporate by reference shall be referred to as the “Terms” and shall govern your access to and use of the Ford Amphitheater Website, www.fordamphitheater.live (the “Website”), including any content and functionality of the Website.

When we refer to “you” or “your,” we mean the person who is visiting and using the Website. If you are accessing the Website on behalf of, or for the purposes of, another person, including a business or other organization, “you” or “your” also means that other person, including a business organization, if applicable.

Please note that the Website is not targeted at children or intended for use by individuals under the age of 16. If you are under the age of 16, you are not permitted to use the Website. If you use the Website, you affirm you are at least 16 years old.

2. Changes to the Terms

We may revise and update these Terms from time to time in our sole discretion. All changes are effective immediately when we post them and apply to all access to and use of the Website thereafter. However, any changes to the dispute resolution provisions set out in Governing Law and Jurisdiction and Arbitration sections will not apply to any disputes for which the parties have actual notice before the date the change is posted.

You are expected to check this page from time to time so you are aware of any changes, as they are binding on you.

3. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

All matters relating to the Website and these Terms, and any dispute or claim arising therefrom or related thereto (in each case, including non-contractual disputes or claims), shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Colorado without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of Colorado or any other jurisdiction).

Any legal suit, action, or proceeding arising out of, or related to, these Terms or the Website shall be instituted exclusively in accordance with the Dispute Resolution provisions, although we retain the right to enforce any arbitration proceeding in which judgment is rendered against you for breach of these Terms in your country of residence or any other relevant country. You waive any and all objections to the exercise of jurisdiction over you by such courts and to venue in such courts as described in this paragraph.

4. Dispute Resolution

Please read this section carefully – it significantly affects your legal rights, including your right to file a lawsuit in court and participate in a class action.

You and we agree that that most disputes that arise between us and that cannot be resolved informally shall be resolved through binding individual arbitration with limited exceptions as set forth below. Arbitration is less formal than a lawsuit in court, uses a single neutral arbitrator instead of a judge or jury, and discovery and appellate review is more limited. This section also includes a class action waiver and jury trial waiver. For the avoidance of doubt, this section survives termination of these Terms and your relationship with Venu and the Foundation. It is our goal that we meet your expectations; however, there may be instances when you have a problem or dispute that needs special attention. In those instances, we are committed to working with you to reach a reasonable resolution that satisfies you; however, we can only do this if we know about and understand your issue. Therefore, for any problem, claim, or dispute that you may have with or against Venu or the Foundation (a “Dispute,” as defined below), you acknowledge and agree that you will first give us an opportunity to informally resolve your Dispute as set forth below in this section. We agree that we will do the same as to any Dispute that it might have with you. “Dispute” shall be interpreted broadly and shall include any dispute, claim or controversy between you and either Venu or the Foundation, their affiliates, and their subsidiaries arising out of or relating to these Terms, your access or use of this Website, or your use of any products or services sold through this Website whether based in contract, tort, statute, fraud, misrepresentation, or any other legal theory. Dispute shall include: (a) any dispute or claim that arose before the existence of this or any prior Terms (including any claims related to advertising); (b) any dispute or claim that is currently the subject of any class action litigation in which you are not a member of a certified class; and (c) any dispute or claim that may arise after termination of these Terms. Dispute, however, does not include disputes or claims concerning patents, copyrights, trademarks, and trade secrets, publicity, and claims of piracy or unauthorized use of intellectual property. The arbitrator shall decide all issues, including the arbitrability of these Terms, except issues that are reserved for a court in these Terms. This Terms and the arbitration agreement do not prevent you from bringing a Dispute to the attention of a government agency.

A. Mandatory Informal Dispute Resolution Process

Before submitting a demand for arbitration in accordance with the provisions set forth in this section, if either you or we have a Dispute with the other party, that party shall first provide the other party with a written notice related to that Dispute (“Notice”). If you have a Dispute with us, you agree to provide us with the Notice by sending the Notice by e-mail info@venu.live. If we have a Dispute with you, we will provide you with the Notice by sending it to the most recent contact information we have on file for you. A Notice must include all of the following: (a) a detailed description of the Dispute; (b) the nature and basis of the claim(s); (c) the relief sought and a calculation for it; (d) information sufficient for us or you to identify any relevant transactions, accounts, or experiences; and (e) the party’s mailing address, email address, and a phone number. Any Notice that you submit must be signed by you and any Notice that we submit must be signed by either a Venu or Foundation representative. If you want us to speak with your representative, please also provide us with a signed authorization to do so.

During the informal dispute resolution process, should the party receiving the Notice make a request, both parties shall participate in an individualized telephonic settlement conference to facilitate potential resolution of the Dispute. You agree to personally attend any such conference (along with counsel if represented) if we make such a request, and we agree to have our representatives personally attend any such conference (along with counsel if represented) if you make such a request. You and we agree to negotiate in good faith in an effort to resolve any Dispute. This should lead to resolution, but if for some reason the Dispute is not resolved within sixty (60) days after the settlement conference, you and we agree to the further dispute resolution provisions below. Both you and we agree that this informal dispute resolution process is mandatory and a condition precedent that must be satisfied before initiating arbitration. Any applicable limitations period (including statutes of limitations) will be tolled for 60 days from the time a fully compliant Notice is served on the other party unless the parties mutually agree to extend that period. A court of competent jurisdiction shall have the power to enforce this condition precedent to arbitration, including the power to enjoin the filing or prosecution of arbitration and the assessment and collection of arbitration fees. If the sufficiency of a Notice or compliance with this informal dispute resolution process is at issue and a party elects to have that issue decided by a court, then any arbitration shall be automatically stayed pending resolution of that issue. Nothing in this paragraph limits the right of a party to seek damages for non-compliance with this mandatory informal process in arbitration. You or we may commence arbitration if the Dispute is not resolved through this process.

B. Terms to Binding Individual Arbitration

You and we agree that subject to the limited exceptions set forth in these Terms, the sole and exclusive forum for any and all Disputes between you and we shall be final and binding individual arbitration except to the extent the decision of the arbitrator must be enforced in a court of competent jurisdiction.

C. Exception – Small Claims Court

Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party retains the right to have a Dispute heard in small claims court provided the Dispute falls within the jurisdictional limits of that court and otherwise qualifies for that court, seeks individualized relief, and so long as the action remains in that court and is not removed or appealed to a court of general jurisdiction. Whether a Dispute falls within the jurisdiction of small claims court is for the small claims court to decide in the first instance and otherwise for a court of competent jurisdiction to decide.

D. Arbitration Procedures

You and we acknowledge that this section of the Terms affects interstate commerce and that the Federal Arbitration Act (“FAA”) and federal arbitration law (and not state arbitration law) apply (despite any other choice of law provision).

Arbitration under these Terms shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association (the “AAA”) in accordance with the then-current AAA Consumer Arbitration Rules (including applicable AAA Supplementary Rules), which are available at <https://www.adr.org/Rules> or by calling 1-800-778-7879, as modified by these Terms. You and we understand that the AAA’s administrative determination that this arbitration provision comports with the Consumer Due Process Protocols is final and that neither a court nor an arbitrator has the authority to revisit it.

If the AAA is unavailable or unwilling to administer the arbitration consistent with these Terms, the parties shall agree on an administrator that will do so. If the parties cannot agree, they shall jointly petition a court of competent jurisdiction to appoint an administrator that shall do so.

The applicable AAA rules will govern the payment of AAA fees unless applicable law requires a different allocation of fees in order for this arbitration provision to be enforceable. If you are unable to pay your share of the AAA fees, we will consider a request to reimburse them so long as your claim is not held by an arbitrator to be frivolous or brought for an improper purpose.

You and we agree that the parties have a shared interest in reducing the costs and increasing the efficiencies associated with arbitration. Therefore, you or we may elect to negotiate with the AAA regarding arbitration fees, and you and we agree to work together in good faith to ensure that arbitration remains cost-effective for all parties. The arbitration demand must be signed by either (i) the claimant if the claimant is unrepresented, or (ii) the claimant's attorney if the claimant is represented. By signing the arbitration demand, the claimant, or the claimant's attorney certifies to the best of their information, knowledge, and belief, formed after a reasonable inquiry under the circumstances that: (i) the arbitration demand is not being presented for any improper purpose, such as to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of arbitration; (ii) the claims or other legal contentions are warranted by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for extending, modifying, or reversing existing law or for establishing new law; and (iii) the factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, will likely have evidentiary support after reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery. The arbitrator is authorized to award any relief or impose any sanctions available under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11 or applicable federal or state law against all parties and counsel.

The parties agree that the arbitrator may award the same relief available in court provided that such relief (including declaratory or injunctive relief) shall only be in favor of the individual party seeking relief and only to the extent necessary to provide the relief warranted by that party's individual claim. YOU AND WE AGREE THAT EACH MAY BRING CLAIMS AGAINST THE OTHER ONLY IN YOUR OR ITS INDIVIDUAL CAPACITY AND NOT AS A PLAINTIFF OR CLASS MEMBER IN ANY PURPORTED CLASS, REPRESENTATIVE, COLLECTIVE, OR PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL PROCEEDING IN ARBITRATION OR IN LITIGATION. FURTHER, UNLESS YOU OR WE AGREE OTHERWISE, THE ARBITRATOR MAY NOT CONSOLIDATE ANY PERSON'S OR ENTITY'S CLAIMS WITH THOSE OF ANOTHER PERSON OR ENTITY AND MAY NOT OTHERWISE PRESIDE OVER ANY FORM OF A CLASS, REPRESENTATIVE, COLLECTIVE, OR PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL PROCEEDING. IF

AFTER EXHAUSTION OF ALL APPEALS ANY OF THESE PROHIBITIONS ON NON-INDIVIDUALIZED RELIEF; CLASS, REPRESENTATIVE, COLLECTIVE, AND PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL CLAIMS; AND CONSOLIDATION IS FOUND TO BE UNENFORCEABLE AS TO A PARTICULAR CLAIM OR WITH RESPECT TO A PARTICULAR REQUEST FOR RELIEF (SUCH AS A REQUEST FOR INJUNCTIVE RELIEF), THEN THE PARTIES AGREE THAT SUCH A CLAIM OR REQUEST FOR RELIEF SHALL BE DECIDED BY A COURT AFTER ALL OTHER CLAIMS AND REQUESTS FOR RELIEF ARE ARBITRATED.

The arbitration will be conducted before a sole neutral arbitrator who shall be located in Denver, Colorado, or if otherwise required by law, at or near the location where the arbitration will take place. Any in-person hearing will be conducted in the county or city in which you reside or at another location that is reasonably convenient for you. You may choose to have the arbitration conducted by a phone, telephonic, or video hearing, or solely through written submissions, except that any Dispute seeking $25,000 or more or injunctive relief shall have an in-person or video hearing unless the parties agree otherwise. You and we reserve the right to request a hearing in any matter from the arbitrator. You and a Venu or Foundation, as applicable, representative shall appear at any hearing (with counsel if represented). Any facts, evidence, documents, or testimony introduced or produced in an arbitration proceeding may be used only in that proceeding and may not be disclosed, introduced, or used in another arbitration proceeding even if it involves the same or similar claims. The parties agree that the arbitration proceedings will be kept confidential and that the existence of the proceeding and any element of it (including, without limitation, any pleadings, briefs or other documents submitted or exchanged and any testimony or other oral submissions and awards) will not be disclosed beyond the arbitration proceedings, except as may lawfully be required in judicial proceedings relating to the arbitration, by applicable disclosure rules and regulations of securities regulatory authorities or other governmental agencies, or as specifically permitted by state law. The parties also agree that the arbitrator will not be bound by rulings in any prior arbitrations not involving the same parties, even if they involved the same or similar claims.

The arbitrator may not award relief to anyone who is not a party to the proceeding. The award of the arbitrator may require payment of the costs, fees, and/or expenses incurred by the prevailing party consistent with applicable law and the applicable AAA rules. The provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 68 shall be applied by the arbitrator after entry of an award. The arbitrator shall be bound by these Terms as a court would and shall issue a reasoned, detailed decision explaining the essential findings and conclusions on which the award is based. The arbitration award shall be binding only as to the parties and shall have no preclusive effect in any other arbitration or proceeding to which you are not a named party. Judgment on any arbitration award may be entered in a court of competent jurisdiction, except that an award that has been satisfied may not be entered.

E. Additional Procedures for Mass Arbitration Filings (“Additional Procedure”)

If twenty-five (25) or more claimants (including you) submit Notices or seek to initiate arbitrations raising similar claims against Venu or the Foundation collectively and are represented by the same or coordinated counsel or are otherwise coordinated (“Mass Arbitration”), you agree that these additional procedures shall apply. The parties agree that as part of these procedures, the resolution of your Dispute might be delayed and ultimately proceed in court. The parties agree that as part of these procedures, their counsel shall meet and confer in good faith in an effort to resolve the Disputes, streamline procedures, address the exchange of information, modify the number of Disputes to be adjudicated through arbitration, and conserve the parties’ and the AAA’s resources. If you elect to bring your Dispute as part of a Mass Arbitration, any applicable limitations periods (including statutes of limitations) shall be tolled for your Dispute from the time that your Dispute is first submitted to the AAA until your Dispute is selected to proceed as part of a staged process or is settled, withdrawn, otherwise resolved, or opted out of arbitration pursuant to this provision.

i. Stage One

If at least 50 Disputes are submitted as part of the Mass Arbitration, counsel for the claimants and counsel for Venu or the Foundation, as applicable, shall each select 25 Disputes to be filed and to proceed as cases in individual arbitrations as part of this initial staged process. The number of Disputes to be selected to proceed in Stage One can be increased by agreement of counsel for the parties (and if there are fewer than 50 Disputes, all shall proceed individually as part of Stage One). Each of the 50 (or fewer) cases shall be assigned to a different arbitrator and proceed individually. If a case is withdrawn before the issuance of an award, another claim shall be selected to proceed as part of Stage One. The remaining Disputes shall not be filed or deemed filed in arbitration nor shall any arbitration fees be assessed or collected in connection with those claims. After this initial set of staged proceedings, counsel for the parties shall participate in a global mediation session with a retired state or federal court judge jointly selected by counsel in an effort to resolve all remaining Disputes, and we shall pay the mediator’s fee.

ii. Stage Two

If the remaining Disputes have not been resolved at the conclusion of Stage One, counsel for the claimants and counsel for Venu or the Foundation, as applicable, shall each select 50

Disputes per side to be filed and to proceed as cases in individual arbitrations as part of this second staged process. The number of Disputes to be selected to proceed in Stage Two can be increased by agreement of counsel for the parties (and if there are fewer than 100 Disputes, all shall proceed individually as part of Stage Two). Each of the 100 (or fewer) cases shall be assigned to a different arbitrator unless counsel for the parties agree otherwise and shall proceed individually. If a case is withdrawn before the issuance of an award, another claim shall be selected to proceed as part of Stage Two. The remaining Disputes shall not be filed or deemed filed in arbitration nor shall any arbitration fees be assessed or collected in connection with those claims. After this second set of staged proceedings, counsel for the parties shall participate in a second global mediation session with a retired state or federal court judge jointly selected by counsel in an effort to resolve all remaining Disputes, and Venu or the Foundation, as applicable, shall again pay the mediator's fee.

Upon the completion of the mediation set forth in Stage Two, each remaining Dispute (if any) that is not settled or withdrawn shall be opted out of arbitration and may proceed in a court of competent jurisdiction consistent with the remainder of the Terms. Notwithstanding the foregoing, counsel for the parties may mutually agree in writing to proceed with the adjudication of some or all of the remaining Disputes in individual arbitrations consistent with the process set forth in Stage Two (except Disputes shall be randomly selected and mediation shall be elective by agreement of counsel) or through another mutually-agreeable process. A court of competent jurisdiction shall have the authority to enjoin the filing or prosecution of arbitrations and the assessment or collection of arbitration fees.

The Additional Procedures for Mass Arbitration Filings provision and each of its requirements are essential parts of this arbitration agreement. If, after exhaustion of all appeals, a court of competent jurisdiction decides that the Additional Procedures for Mass Arbitration Filings apply to your Dispute and are not enforceable, then your Dispute shall not proceed in arbitration and shall proceed in a court of competent jurisdiction consistent with the remainder of the Terms.

F. Future Changes to Arbitration Terms

If we make any future changes to this arbitration agreement (other than a change to our contact information), you may reject any such change by sending your personally signed, written notice within 30 days of the change to info@venu.live. Such written notice does not constitute an opt out of arbitration altogether. By rejecting a future change, you are agreeing that you will arbitrate any Dispute as between you and Venu in accordance with this version of the arbitration agreement.

G. Class Action Waiver And Jury Trial Waiver

You and Venu each agree that any proceeding, whether in arbitration or litigation in court, will be conducted only on an individual basis and not in a class, collective, consolidated, private attorney general, or representative action. You and we agree to waive any right to bring or to participate in such an action in arbitration or in court to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the parties retain the right to participate in a class-wide settlement. To the fullest extent permitted by law, you and we waive the right to a jury trial.

H. Arbitration Agreement Opt-Out

You may opt out of this arbitration agreement by sending written notice to info@venu.live within thirty (30) days of your first use of the Website.
